Workshop Objectives:

- Participants will define and increase understanding of homelessness as well as domestic and sexual violence.
- Participants will gain knowledge of the many intersections of homelessness and domestic and sexual violence and understand the unique vulnerabilities experienced by homeless persons.
- Participants will increase skills in collaborative community response to the intersections of homelessness and domestic and sexual assault.

Searching for Sanctuary: The Intersections of Domestic Violence, Sexual Violence and Homelessness

Friday, March 18th, 2011

10 AM - 3 PM

In this workshop, participants will develop an understanding of the role domestic and sexual violence play in the lives of homeless victims. Participants will also develop skills for responding to homeless men's and women's disclosure of domestic and sexual violence and be educated in the need and prospects for collaborative community response.
