Workshop Objectives:

- Increase participant knowledge of the issue of human trafficking. Special focus will be on the screening considerations, intervention techniques, and community resources available to assist child victims of human trafficking.
- Understand legal rights of children (and parents) who are limited English proficient under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act
- Discuss strategies for developing language access plans and advocating for language access.
- Provide information about immigrant and refugee children's social service, mental health and legal needs.

Immigrant and Refugee Children and the Social Service System

Thursday, April 15th, 2010

9 AM - 4 PM

Immigrant and refugee children have unique and complex social service and legal needs. This workshop will provide information on immigrant and refugee children's social service, mental health and legal needs. The workshop will also discuss important topics that impact immigrant and refugee children such as child trafficking, mental health needs, language barriers, and immigration protections and remedies for children. Participants will leave with an enhanced understanding of how they can best serve immigrant children in a culturally-sensitive and comprehensive way.
