Workshop Objectives:

- To present participants with the current stereotypes of people in poverty, along with systemic injustices that perpetuate poverty and those stereotypes
- To highlight and challenge those stereotypes with the true resiliencies and resourcefulness of poor people
- To highlight efforts of grassroots organizations to address poverty in the community and ways for which participants can become involved in the struggle for economic justice

Dismantling Classism

Friday, July 30th, 2010

10 AM - 3PM

This session will be an interactive workshop led by current and former low income people, members of Women In Transition, that will highlight and subsequently tear down stereotypes commonly held of people in poverty. This workshop will also look at systemic injustices that perpetuate situations of poverty and said stereotypes, while looking at the intersection of class, race and gender.
